The many hours he's spent at DC10 are, Daniel thinks, the reason for his conversion to the minimal cause. He's learned well. This set is full of classy stark textures and architectural beats. In his 11 years DJing he's had gigs all over the place but nothing regular. Here's hoping this changes that.

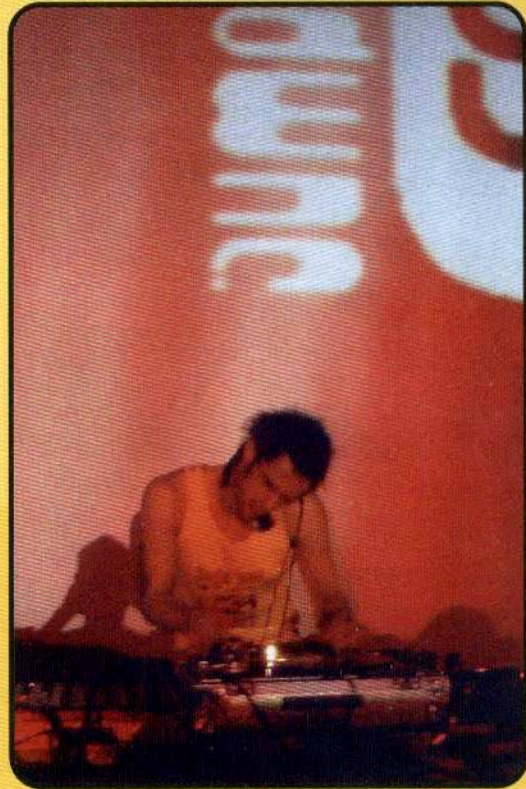

EDDIE: "Not the sort of stuff I'd listen to at all - it's a little too minimal. I can appreciate it, but I preferred the end when it built up. It needs more fire!"

YOUSEF: "At first I was like, what's this trendy minimal nonsense? But by the end I was like fucking hell, this is ace! It's broadened my horizons as well - well done!"

JON: "I'm not usually into this sound, but it's the kind of very laidback stuff that would sound great after a night clubbing or DJing."

A journey into the deepest of deep European tech house from 26-year-old Stephen. Everything from the arrangement to the underground track selection is right on the money. He admits he was late getting into DJing but with a set like this and a bar residency in London he's certainly caught up quickly.

TRACKLISTING:

1. Loco Dice - 'Meninan Brasileira' (Ovum)
2. Stan - 'Sei' [Steve Bug Remix] (Poker Flat)
3. Martin Landsky - 'FM Safari' (Patrick Chardonnet's Remix) (Poker Flat)

DJ RIGUEZ

Poor Riguez. He's been forced to play rubbish in bars for the last decade. Now however he's aching to play what he calls the 'music that I'm in love with'. On this evidence that means tough and dirty UK house with plenty of bounce, funk, squelch and quality.

TRACKLISTING:

1. Lavo & Bushwacka! - 'Tabloid' (Olmato)
2. Akubu - 'Don't Hold back' (Skylark Instrumental Dub) (NRK)
